Course Description:

The objective of this program is to expose J-1 students from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Cameroon, Ghana, India, Jamaica, Kenya, Latvia, Ukraine & Zimbabwe to explore a myriad of global issues to broaden their vision, perspectives and leadership in diverse forms. This includes understanding your own leadership preferences and styles while working with peers from different parts of the world. The experience will challenge students to analyze course content from their different framework while recognizing the opportunities available to encourage leadership in their networks both locally and globally. Targeted for partners from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Cameroon, Ghana, India, Jamaica, Kenya, Latvia, Ukraine & Zimbabwe this program demonstrates dual impact: (a) the positive impact you will see in yourself through greater self-awareness and better understanding of the world around you and (b) the positive impact you can have in your community. In addition to the engagement of course content, students will apply their learning through the direct engagement of diverse discussions and deliberations.

Through this program, we emphasize that success depends not only on your functional/technical skills and expertise, but also on your qualitative competency, understanding yourself and your interactions with others as well as your ability to apply your learning in the real-world situations. Much of the work will be self-driven but supported with strengths-based leadership development, peer mentors, engaging faculty and numerous opportunities for networking with peers from four other countries. Final presentations at the end of the program will provide the opportunity to share your action learning project experiences with your peers.
